

Loudoun Interfaith Bridges 2009 Community Youth Award

Application Deadline: October 25, 2009

Loudoun Interfaith BRIDGES is proud to announce that it is accepting applications for the Loudoun Interfaith BRIDGES Community Youth Award. This is the first year that student residents of Loudoun County, grades 9-12, are eligible for one of two grants awarded on the basis of their leadership in the area of interfaith activities. One grant of $1000 and another of $500 will be presented at the Interfaith Day of Thanks on Sunday, November 8, 2009 at the Ida Lee Recreation Center in Leesburg Virginia.

Award recipients will be selected based the student's involvement in a community service activity that fosters interfaith or multicultural understanding. Letters of recommendation and other documentation which supports their involvement must be provided along with the application.

Additional information : youthaward@loudouninterfaithbridges.org.

Application

Name:

Address:

Phone:

Email:

School Attending:

(Applicants must reside and be enrolled in or be home schooled in Loudoun County.)

Grade:

(Applicants must be in 9 – 12th grades.)

Essay Questions:

1. Describe the activity(ies) you were involved with and how it (they) fostered interfaith and/or multicultural understanding. (Limit response to two pages)
2. Describe your role in this activity. (Limit response to one page)
3. Discuss how you would use the award monies; e.g. further schooling, educational activities, supporting interfaith programs etc. (Limit response to one page)

Letters of Recommendation from two sponsors / hosts of the interfaith activity with contact information.

Supporting documentation (optional)

Applications must be submitted by October 25, 2009 to:

Lorraine Davis

POBox 4518

Leesburg VA 20177

or youthaward@loudouninterfaithbridges.org.

Direct questions to above email.