Addressing Hunger in Loudoun County
Through Education, Advocacy and Direct Service

Hunger exists, even in Loudoun County, and hunger doesn't choose sides, hunger effects us all. Join with others from across our diverse community to address this local struggle through education, advocacy, and direct service. All ages are welcome. Our event will conclude with a multicultural meal and a series of diverse prayers and meditations by leaders from our interfaith congregations. Awards will also be given to youth that show leadership in the interfaith arena.
